Resident's granddaughter wed

Mrs. Christopher Helton

Miss Deborah Susan Fuhrman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Fuhrman, Newark, Delaware, and granddaughter of Mrs. Richard Williamson, 34 Cinn. Street, was wed to Mr. Christopher Helton this September in Los Angeles.

A ceremony and reception dinner were held in a United Nations Plaza suite, New York City, on October 15. Matron of honor was Mrs. Jeffrey Matthews of Greenville, Delaware. Best man was Mr. Adam Cuhay from the Wall Street firm of Salomon and Brothers, Inc.

The bride wore a floor-length designer gown of white tulle and lace with a dropped shoulder cut and veiled sleeves. She carried a salmon pink roses and baby's breath.

Mrs. Helton is a graduate of Mt. Pleasant High School, the University of Delaware, and the marketing-advertising program at New York University. She has been employed by Marsteller Inc., a subsidiary of Young and Rubicam, as an advertising account executive in New York, and such clients as Hoffmann-La Roche, Alfa Romeo, and Parke-Davis.
